American Reliable Insurance Company

DP-3 OVERVIEW

The American Reliable DP-3 program offers a variety of coverages and limits. The DP-3 typically has a higher premium than the DP-1 or DP-2 program, but provides more coverage as nearly all perils are covered unless the policy specifically excludes or limits the coverage. The DP-3 program should be used for dwellings in excellent repair with no existing damage and is typically used for newer, higher valued dwellings where replacement cost is desired. The dwellings placed in this program may have one or more of the following characteristics:

- Professional landlords with multiple rental properties
- Seasonal occupancy, including vacation rentals
- Unsupported rental properties
- Primary homes where the insured may have a credit history that would prevent them from getting a policy with a homeowners market.

DP-3 vs. HO-3: Coverage in the DP-3 and HO-3 policy forms is very similar with a few exceptions. Some of these exceptions include:

- Coverage C is only included if the coverage is listed on the declarations page.
- Liability is only included if the coverage is listed on the declarations page.
- No Loss Assessment Coverage
- No Credit Card, Electronic Fund Transfer Card or Access Device, Forgery and Counterfeit Money Coverage

The HO-3 requires the dwelling to be owner occupied while the DP-3 does not.

Policy Form: American Reliable uses the ISO DP 00 03 for its DP-3 Program. The DP-3 is considered an open perils policy and provides coverage for any reason not specifically excluded.

DP-3 Commonly Excluded Perils*:

- Ordinance or Law (except what is included in Other Coverages Included section)
- Earth Movement
- Water Damage (flood, surface water, etc.)
- Power Failure
